STUDENT EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

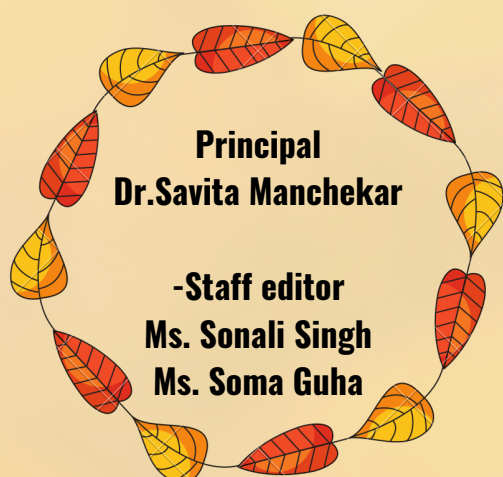

It gives me immense pleasure to put forth the eminence joy, achievements, hard work, and new techniques that we have experienced in this pandemic situation through our e-bulletin. This fifth edition has the entire endeavor that we have done our best in. It covers up all the competitions that have been conducted in online mode. This bulletin highlights activities during the celebration of Gandhian week, internship, celebrating grand events. These are all just a few drops from the entire ocean. It provides insights about our learning through the means of the digital world. As it is rightly said that 'A little progress each day adds upto big results'. In a similar way we the student teachers of LUCE made our small step towards virtual learning and developing our ICT skills.

Without further ado, we present to you with great jubilation the bulletin for the month. We hope you enjoy and learn from the same.

Sincerely,

Senorita Lobo

The editorial team member.

Inventing tomorrow with ICT.....

Integration of ICT in teaching has very important significance on learning attitude of students, creativity, knowledge construction, learning environment, teaching strategies, problem solving skills and understanding concepts using various tools.

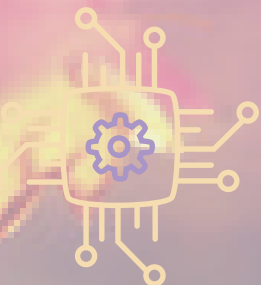

Hence, we at LUCE are very well versed with using various apps to make our teaching learning process highly interesting and also to survive competently in this fast moving world. LUCEites are trained in such a way that wherever we are we always showcase our talents through digital platforms.

Conversational English Course

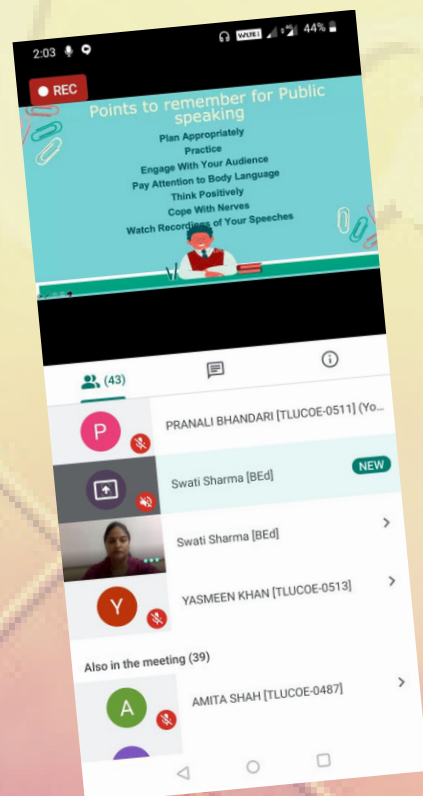

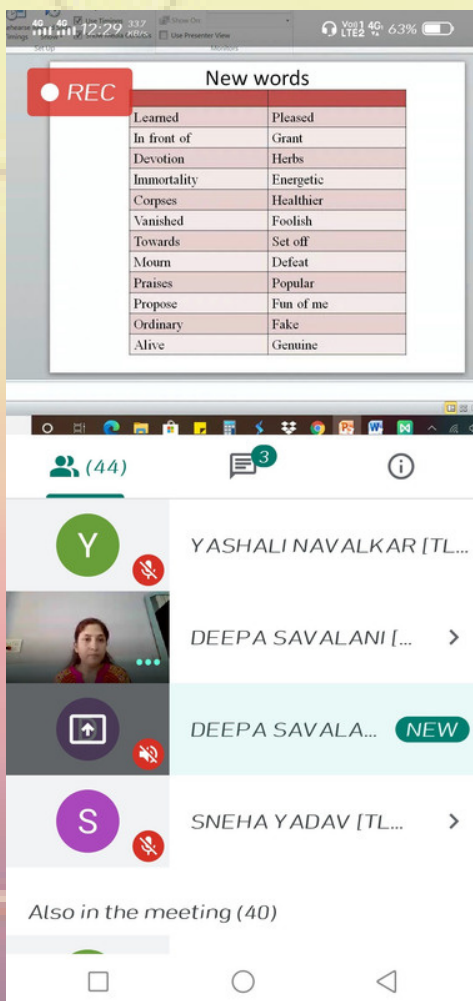

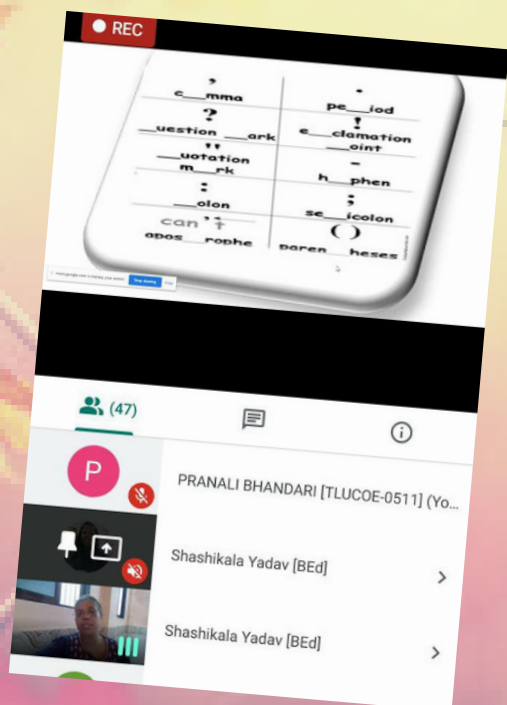

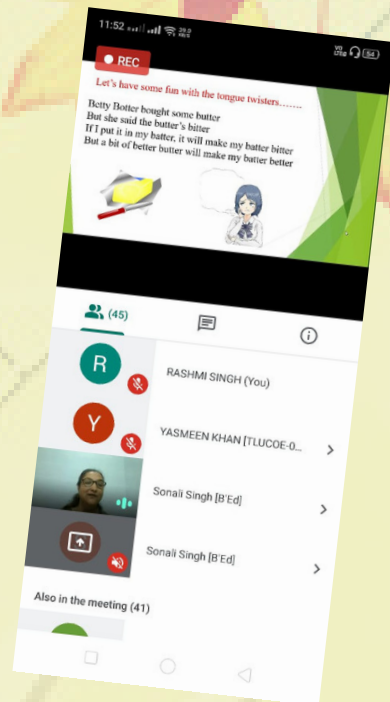

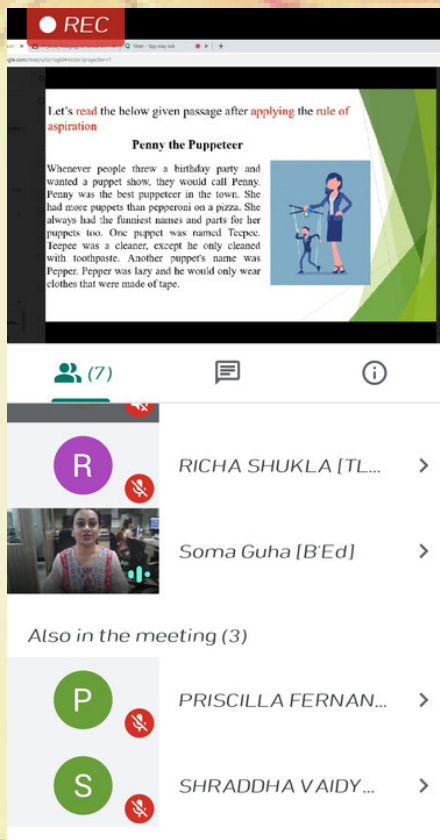

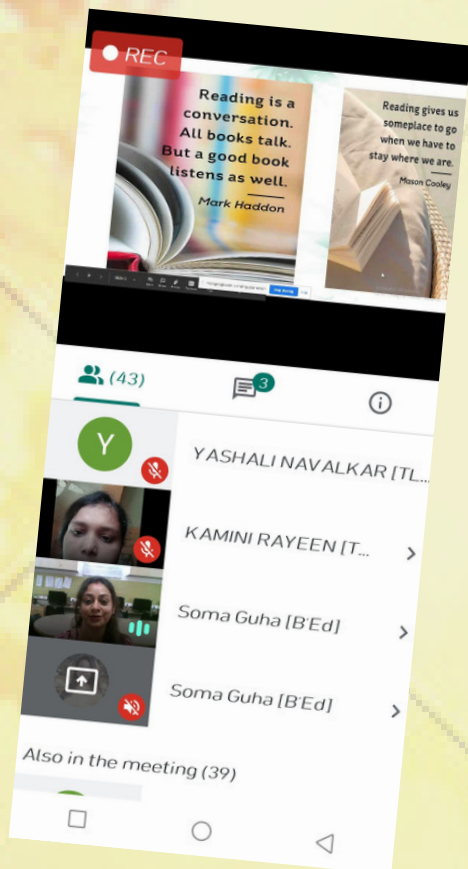

Language plays an important role in critical development, knowing the importance of it, The Lord's Universal College of Education had organized a 30 hours course of Conversational English Course for refining the skill of Four R's. The course started from 16th July 2020 ,the syllabus was designed in a manner to help the non-native speakers of English language to communicate in English with utmost confidence without any grammatical error. The conversational English course has nonetheless boosted our confidence and communication skills. It has ultimately raised our potential for being hired in reputed institutions and thereby surviving with utmost confidence.

Learning to Converse Virtually.....

Online video editing training

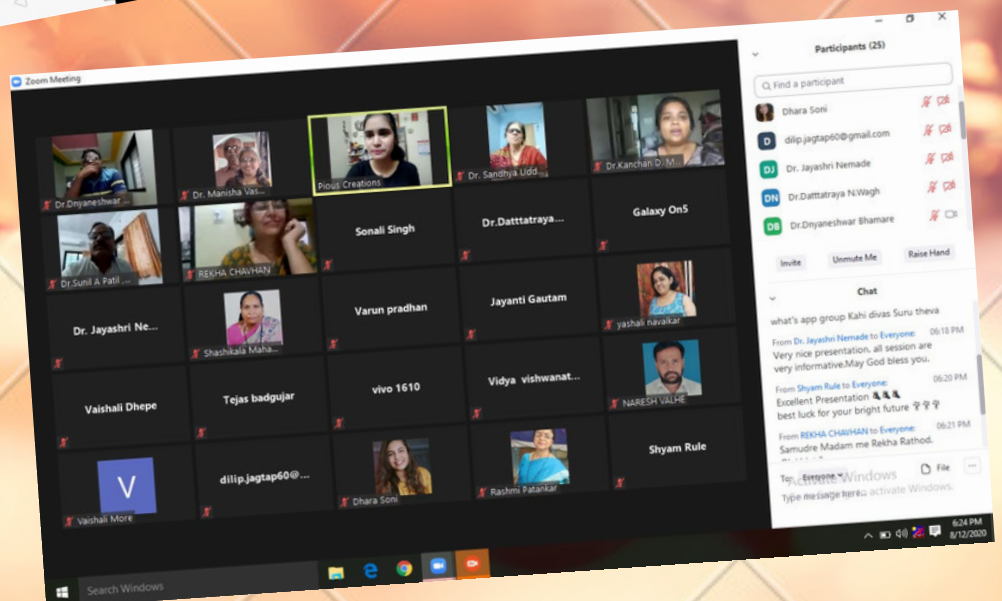

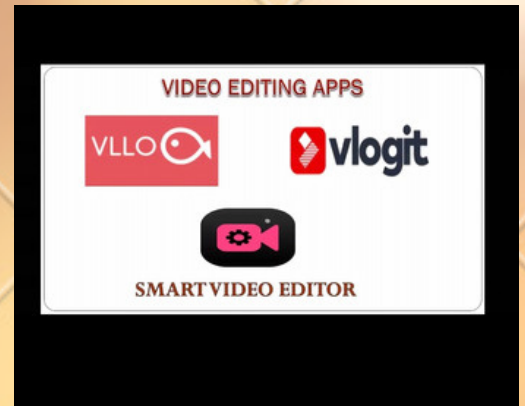

ICT training for educational purposes is a must and we all know how important it is in our lives today. We were fortunate enough for an opportunity to attend a 5 day training programme organised by Edustream on creation of educational videos on mobile phones. The main aim of this workshop was to develop the knowledge and skill of educational video creation and editing. All the sessions were very interesting and meaningful as we could apply the learning in different situations. It was absolutely helpful for all the students and we were grateful for giving such a wonderful opportunity to learn something new.

Trainees training Peers.....

Canva session by peers

We had another wonderful session on Canva conducted by our peers to explore new way of learning- teaching through this app . Canva is a graphic designer site which can be used through our phone to create interesting resources of our own.

We also got to hear about their experiences, skills, knowledge about Canva and the way that they have used it as a resource in their teaching learning process.It can now be said that LUCEites are to take up modern ways of learning through mobile applications which will facilitate learning and lead us to development.

- Atiya Shaikh

The Canva logo is located in the bottom left corner. It consists of the word "Canva" in a white, cursive-style font, centered within a solid orange-red circle.

Guru Purnima Celebration

The Lord's Universal College of Education" conducted a Theme-Based Assembly online . Significance of this theme was then explained with intricately designed words that filled our hearts with joy followed by the importance of this day thus opening up new horizons of understanding for all of us,

It was a day to be thankful for our Gurus. When you perceive how an insight can change your life, you feel appreciative for all that has come your direction. Creativity was not left behind during this celebration as our classmates presented their e-creations for a visual treat.

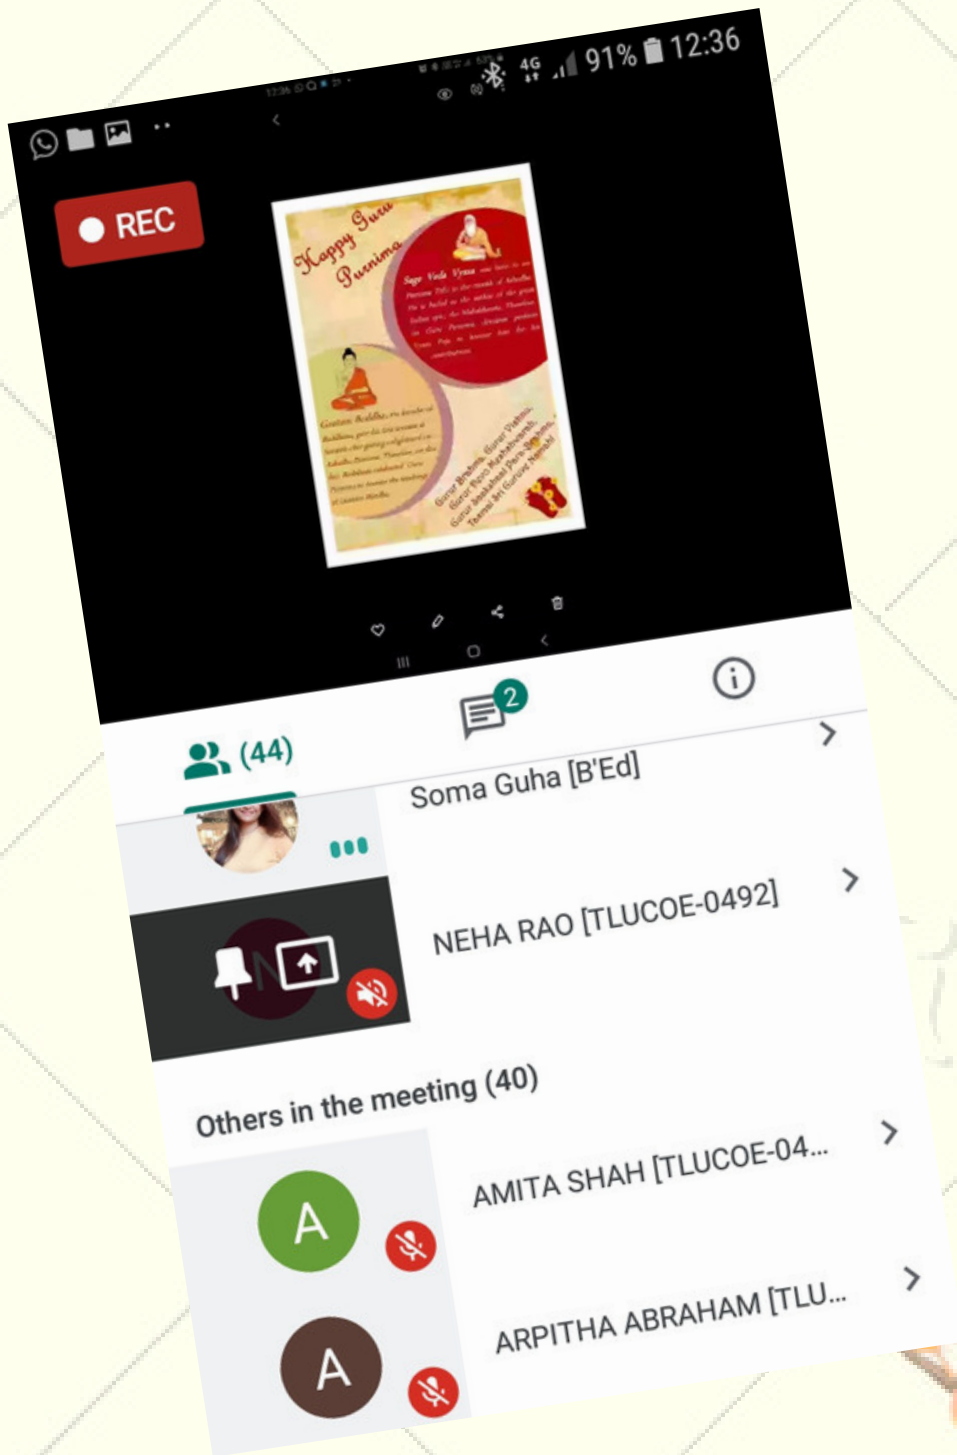

As student-teachers it was an immense pleasure to be a part of this celebration. May the Guru's proceed to sparkle and be the aides and torchbearers of society!

Independence Day. Celebration

Proud to be an Indian.....

The Principal, Teachers, and all the students of The Lord's Universal College of Education celebrated our 74th Independence Day online with the same sentiment of patriotism and pride.

We hoisted the flag in a virtual setting and sang our National anthem . All the events of the celebration pushed us towards the feeling of patriotism.

In short, a wonderful independence day was celebrated without stepping out of our houses keeping us all safe yet patriotic . We also took a pledge to safeguard the freedom of the nation. This day, indeed, is one of the most important days in the history of free India. It was celebrated with great fervour with LUCE family.

Coming together Through Rashtrabhasha....

On the occasion of Hindi Diwas, our college, conducted a Theme-Based Assembly on the importance of 'Hindi Diwas'. We conducted the assembly in our national language-Hindi . The entire event was conducted skillfully by a few of our students. One of our peer shared an insightful thought for the day keeping the theme in mind.

Our Principal Mrs. Savita Manchekar speaking on the occasion gave an insight and importance of Hindi language in our daily life and urged everyone to feel proud of our National Language Hindi. Language and culture of any country plays an important role in making people-to connect with the people & helps in making a strong nation.

Thus, the celebration concluded with a positive note.

Dr. Abdul Kalam birthday celebration

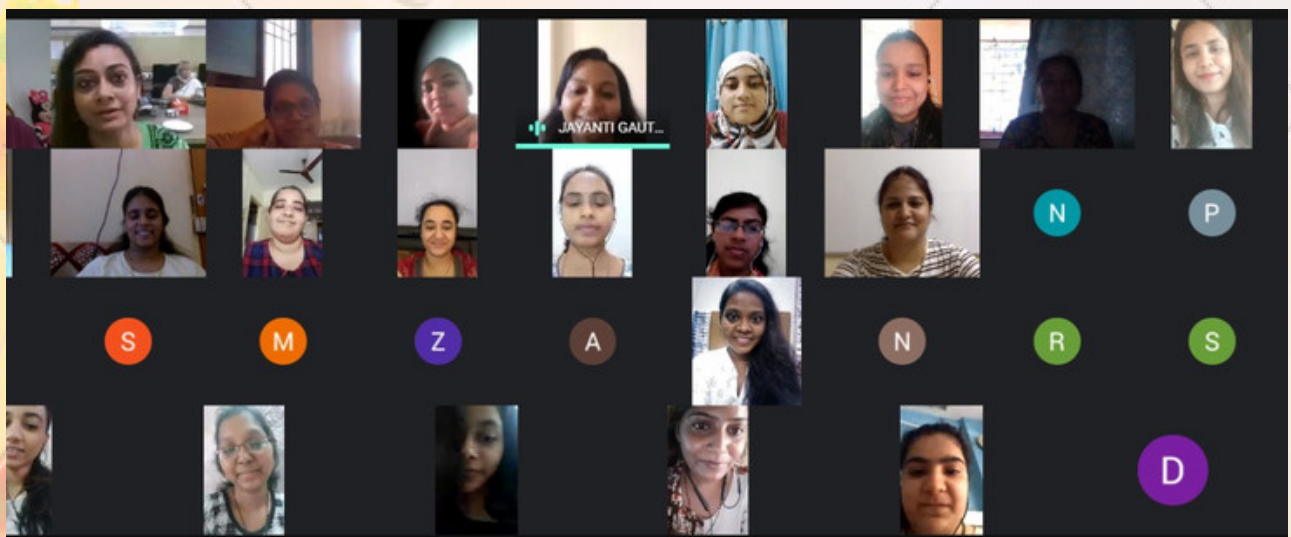

Issue No -05
November 2020

LUCE celebrated the birth anniversary of Dr. APJ Kalam. The highlights of this celebration was the reflection on the famous quotes given by Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam. Memoirs of the books written by APJ Abdul Kalam ji were also reflected upon .

The best part of these activities were to think as to how the principles of Kalamji can be incorporated in our present life today. The day was very energetic for each one of us with a lot of information and knowledge. While presenting and listening we learned many positive things, that will help us in our upcoming future.

Intra collegiate e-Tahuko

Every festival is an opportunity to strengthen our ties with our roots. Hence, LUCE celebrated Navaratri celebration "Tahuko" in which all the students participated with great enthusiasm. All the students were best dressed in their traditional attire which added to the festive mood.

Students prepared a video playing Raas garba with their family members which created a vibrant and exuberant show. Many competitions like Arti Thali decorations, best Garba costumes were arranged. The ongoing pandemic may have stalled the Navaratri celebration around the country but the spirit of the students of LUCEites is not dampened.

A collage of 18 different Diya (oil lamp) designs, arranged in a grid. The designs are highly creative and colorful, featuring various themes such as:

- Religious and Symbolic: Several designs feature the Swastika symbol, the Om symbol, and the word 'Sant' (Saint), indicating their use in religious or spiritual ceremonies.
- Floral and Nature: Many designs are shaped like flowers or incorporate floral motifs, often using marigold petals or other natural elements.
- Geometric and Abstract: Some designs are circular with intricate geometric patterns, while others are more abstract, resembling faces or stylized figures.
- Materials: The Diyas are made from various materials, including clay, metal, and even paper or plastic, and are often decorated with paint, glitter, or other decorative elements.

The collage is set against a background with a decorative border at the top, suggesting a festive or cultural context.
