

EXTENSION WORK

LUCE has extended its community services by taking up projects under Department of Life Long Extension work (DLLE). DLLE carries out different projects to help the community with the help of junior and degree college students. LUCE undertakes different projects every year for B.Ed. students like Ananpurna Yojana, Status of Women in the society, Carrier Project as per the requirement of the B.Ed. course and serving to the community.

Objectives of Extension Work

- 1) To develop leadership quality among students.
- 2) To develop communication skills among students.
- 3) To develop empathy towards the community.
- 4) To develop business skills among students.

2019-20 Report

LUCE has taken up two projects under extension work for FYB.Ed and SYB.Ed students. They are Status of Women in the Society(SWS) and Carrier Project (CP) respectively. Under SWS project, students have to do college level and community level activities related to status of women in the society in the form of poster making, slogan writing, drama, elocution competition and debate competition etc. Whereas CP project is focused on developing carrier related understanding as a guidance among school and college students by conducting career fairs in their school or colleges.

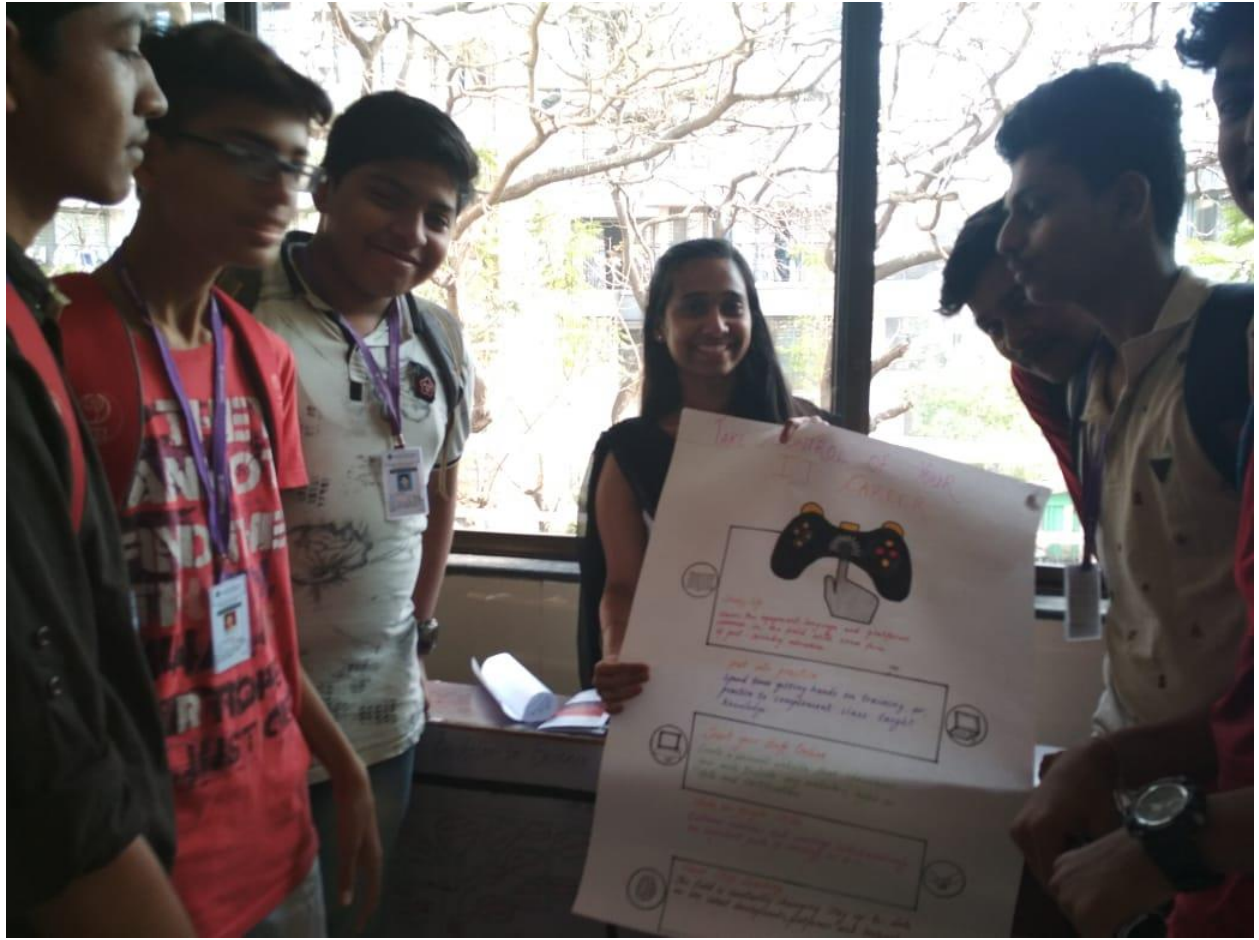

FYB.Ed students have carried out different college level activities to have an understanding of the status of women in the society with the help of poster and slogan making competitions and debate competition. Similarly carried out an online survey on SWS in the society and interpreted its results.

Whereas SYB.Ed students have carried out career projects by preparing posters and pamphlets related to different careers as per the academic streams as a college level activity. Similarly carried out career fair in their internship school or colleges for students and guided them further to choose a career.

Academic year of 2019-20 has combinedly participated in the Udaan annual Festival organised by DLLE. In the festival B.Ed students have participated in poster making and skit competitions on social issues. In this competition LUCE has won 3rd prize in skit competition.
